

UP

One Man's Journey to Feminism

Performance Art in Support of Gender Equality

"Peter takes us on a compelling, empathetic, and disarming journey that allows us to experience the power of understanding, connection, and alliance with feminist values. Engaging, reflective, personal, and poignantly musical." — Mike Descoteaux, Artistic Director

"Your book was a tremendous help in understanding and identifying as a feminist."
— CarolAnn Garratt, Pilot, Author of Upon Silver Wings

"I pray and hope many men read Peter's book."
— Alex Prout, Vice-Chair, I Have the Right To

Peter W. Pruyn

he / him / his*

Photo: ©2020 Peter W. Pruyn

*To mark the release of Peter Pruyn's ("prine") free online memoir, FAWCO and the American Women's Club of Berlin
invite you to a free performance:*

Friday, February 12, 2021
10:30am PST / 1:30pm EST
6:30pm GMT / 7:30pm CET

Featuring selected readings with improvised piano accompaniment by the author (60 minutes) followed by audience reflections (30 minutes)

via Zoom

Artist's Statement: "What should an author talk during a pandemic look like? I wanted to give the audience a sense of the arc of the book as well as space to process what they'd heard. After deciding to add music, 'performance art' seemed like the only fair description. I hope this event gives you a sense of the book, while also providing the opportunity to share your experience of it in the company of people from different parts of the world."

To register please email HumanRights@FAWCO.org
by Wednesday, February 10th.

*This event is by invitation only.
Please do not distribute or post on social media.*

Content warning:
Contains descriptions of physical and emotional violence.

upthememoir.com • upthememoir.uk • upthememoir.org

* he/him/his: This is the set of pronouns I prefer other people to use when referring to me. People who identify as transgender or gender nonconforming may choose to use pronouns that do not conform to binary male/female gender categorizations, such as "they, them, theirs."

Photo: 7,500 feet over Galveston Bay early on a Saturday morning.